REPORT TO THE TWENTY-SECOND LEGISLATURE
IN COMPLIANCE WITH ACT 216, SLH 1997

Act 216, SLH 1997, amended Chapter 321, Hawaii Revised Statutes by adding a new section establishing the Domestic Violence Prevention Special Fund which is administered and expended by the Department of Health. Act 216 reserves the use of the special fund by the Department of Health for staff programs and grants or purchases of service that support or provide domestic violence intervention or prevention as authorized by law. Act 216 further requires an annual report providing an accounting of receipts and expenditures.

Beginning in FY 2000, the Domestic Violence Prevention Special Fund's appropriation ceiling of $300,000 was incorporated into the General Appropriations Act (Act 91, SLH 1999) and revenues from fees for certified copies of birth marriage, and death certificates issued by the Department of Health totaled $212,959.

The Department of Health has designated the Domestic Violence Prevention Special Fund for primary prevention efforts.
